DIRECTED BY DOUG THISTLEWHITE

What happens when convent cook Sister Julia (Child of God) accidentally poisons several of the Little Sisters of Hoboken? The remaining sisters put on a show to raise money to bury the departed. But not without hilarious vicissitudes that will bring back memories to those who remember their parochial school days and bring laughs to everyone.

Nunsense is a fun filled, mad musical that has run continuously off Broadway for the past 18 years.

As producer working with five enthusiastic talented final year musical theatre students, this show will have an overall appeal to all audiences.

Previous musicals produced by Doug have been "King and I", "Sound of Music", "Fiddler on the roof" and "Annie". In 1986 he formed his own company "Thistle productions" producing numerous musical cabaret likes "Vera Lynn Remembers", "Victorian song book", "Frankly Sinatra", "Grace and Vera" and "Just Judy Garland".

Come and join the 5 Nuns of Hoboken for a fun filled time.
